

How to generate the activation code for an instrument option

May 24, 2018

Many SIGLENT instruments feature options that can be added by using an activation code.

To generate the activation code:

- Purchase the option from your favorite SIGLENT office or distributor. A full list of available options are located at the bottom of the specific product web page.
- You will receive an Option Card PDF document from SIGLENT that contains important information for permanent activation of the features. Keep this information handy through the next steps.
- Go to <http://service.siglenteu.com/easyweb/>
- Enter the information from the Option Card in the correct fields of the webpage, and press Submit:

This will generate an Option Key and instructions specific to activating the option on the instrument of interest.
